Building (JSB) 161N

Part of AAUP's Day of Action

Neal Hutchens is a faculty member in the Department of Educational Policy Studies and Evaluation at the University of Kentucky. His research centers on topics dealing with the intersections of higher education law, policy and practice, with much of his scholarship centered on issues of free speech and academic freedom in higher education.

We will discuss the general notion of shared governance and issues such as faculty's role in decision-making, budget concerns, and political interference. Join us as we examine how recent actions at UK as well as those at the state and federal levels impact YOU!
